BELLE GLADE NEWS

Belle Glade Revival Closes

The revival at the First Baptist church, Belle Glade, came to a close last Sunday night, after two successful weeks. Unusually large crowds attended the service all the way through and twenty-five new members were received. Members of whom were given profession of faith. A baptismal pool was installed in the church this week in preparation for the baptism of new members. The pastor, Dr. W. Marion Stentel, expressed the hope that he would preach next Sunday morning on "Come Thou With Us," a theme he would use to use to those who had been hindered in so doing by the storm. Following a brief sermon and the usual children's service, he will administer the ordinance of Baptism for those who have recently united with the church. At the evening service, Dr. Stentel is to speak on "Will Thou Be Made Whole?" A most cordial invitation is extended to all. The contract has been let for the erection of a pastor's home which is to occupy a lot adjacent to the church on which the new building is to be erected, presently purchased by the church for that purpose. Plans are also under way for the erection of a modern church building, which is badly needed by the congregation which now worships in a temporary structure. The new buildings will be in keeping with the building revival so prominent at the present in this little city.

Fishin' & Everything

Denton's Hardware Store in Pahokee and Betzner's in Belle Glade are each offering prizes for the largest fresh water fish caught this season and entered in their contests. The entries must be caught with rod and reel and brought to the respective store to be weighed and recorded. To date the standing of the entries for the season is as follows:

Dave Cunningham 11 lb. Hugo B. 11 1/2 lb. Art Hodges 6 lbs. 11 oz.

Fisherman Land Shark Messrs. J. E. Altman and Roscoe Roberts returned Tuesday morning from Fort Pierce where they spent the night fishing for the bridge for salt water fish. They landed a large shovel-nose shark which weighed in the neighborhood of 250 pounds. The monster put up a hard fight and succeeded in throwing the hook but in some manner the hook caught him in the bridge. The party also landed a large snook.

The catches were brought to Canal Point and exhibited.

Callaway congratulated Cone on his nomination and invited the Democrat to accompany him on his quest on a tour of the state so that they might speak at the general election campaign.

He said he hoped "we may conduct a great educational campaign so that regardless of which one of us shall be elected our mutual and constructive efforts together may be footprints upon the sands of this state for good government and helpfulness to all our people."

One said he would be glad to share speaking time with Callaway and to debate with him, but could see no good reason for a joint campaign tour.

Governor Sholtz, attending the Democratic national convention in Philadelphia, said:

"The Democrats have made their choice between two splendid gentlemen. Mr. Cone will be elected in November and I am confident he will lead the state through four years of progress."
